MICHIGAN STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION
STATEMENT OF ASSURANCE OF COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW

The Michigan State Board of Education complies with all Federal laws and regulations prohibiting discrimination and with all requirements and regulations of the U.S. Department of Education. It is the policy of the Michigan State Board of Education that no person on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, age, sex, marital status, or handicap shall be discriminated against, excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination in any program or activity for which it is responsible or for which it receives financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education.

NOTE: For each item listed throughout this booklet, the first statement is the Michigan Grade Level Content Expectation (GLCE) and the second statement is the descriptor for the item's stem or question.

Students were instructed to read the directions below silently as the test administrator read them aloud.

PART 1

DIRECTIONS:

In this part, you will answer multiple-choice social studies questions. Some questions will ask you to read a passage, map, or other social studies-related information. Use that information with what you know to answer the question.

You must mark all of your answers in Part 1 of your Answer Document with a No. 2 pencil. You may underline, highlight, or write in this test booklet to help you, but nothing in this test booklet will be scored. No additional paper may be used.

Mark only one answer for each question. Completely fill in the corresponding circle on your Answer Document. If you erase an answer, be sure to erase completely. Remember that if you skip a question in the test booklet, you need to skip the answer space for that question on the Answer Document. If you are not sure of an answer, mark your best choice.

A sample question is provided for you below.

Sample Multiple-Choice Question:

Which economic activity is most important in Florida today?

- A logging
- B trapping
- C growing potatoes and apples
- D growing grapefruits and oranges

For this sample question, the correct answer is D. Circle D is filled in for the sample question on your Answer Document.

Once you have reached the word STOP in your test booklet, do NOT go on to the next page. If you finish early, you may go back and check your work in Part 1 of the test ONLY. Check to make sure that you have answered every question. Do NOT look at any other part of the test.

NOTE: The directions for Part 2 are the same as the above instructions.

- 1 6 – W1.2.3: Explain the impact of the Agricultural Revolution (stable food supply, surplus, population growth, trade, division of labor, development of settlements).
- Identify a factor that led to the development of settlements in the New Stone Age.
- A factor related to trade
 - B factor related to literacy
 - C correct, identifies a factor related to the Agricultural Revolution
 - D factor related to tool-making
- 2 6 – W1.1.1: Describe the early migrations of people among Earth's continents (including the Beringa Land Bridge).
- Given an incomplete flow chart, identify an early migration to North America and its cause.
- A correct, identifies early people crossing into North America to follow a food source
 - B unrelated geographical location and cause
 - C unrelated geographical location
 - D correct location, incorrect cause
- 3 7 – W1.2.1: Explain the importance of the natural environment in the development of agricultural settlements in different locations (e.g., available water for irrigation, adequate precipitation, suitable growth season).
- Given a map of early civilizations, identify why human settlement occurred in the pattern shown.
- A correct, identifies the geographical features that led to the settlement pattern shown
 - B climate factor not supported by the map
 - C vegetation factor not supported by the map
 - D defensive factor not supported by the map
- 4 6 – W2.1.3: Use multiple sources of evidence to describe how the culture of early peoples of North America reflected the geography and natural resources available (e.g., Inuit of the Arctic, Kwakiutl of the Northwest Coast, Anasazi and Apache of the Southwest).
- Given an image of two early American Indian dwellings, explain why they are different.
- A unrelated religious factor
 - B unrelated political factor
 - C correct, identifies the related geographic factor
 - D unrelated trade factor

Identify the significance of a major Chinese architectural achievement.

- A correct, identifies it as an example of ancient military strategy
- B unrelated religious significance
- C unrelated stylistic significance
- D unrelated ethnic and dynastic significance

- 6 7 – W3.1.9: Describe the significance of legal codes, belief systems, written languages, and communications in the development of large regional empires.

Describe why a written language and legal codes were important in early civilizations.

- A incorrect importance related to public education
- B correct, identifies that these unified distinct peoples
- C incorrect importance related to military strength
- D incorrect importance related to religion

- 7 7 – W3.2.1: Identify and describe the beliefs of the five major world religions.

Identify the religion that holds a particular belief.

- A incorrect religion
- B correct, identifies the religion that holds this belief
- C incorrect religion
- D incorrect religion

- 8 7 – G1.2.1: Locate the major landforms, rivers, and climate regions of the Eastern Hemisphere.

Identify the environment that explains the population density in two regions of a given continent.

- A environment not found on this continent
- B correct, identifies the environment that explains the population density in these two regions
- C environment not found in these two regions
- D environment not predominate in one region and absent from the other

- 9 7 – G1.3.1: Use the fundamental themes of geography (location, place, human environment interaction, movement, region) to describe regions or places on earth.

Identify the statement that demonstrates the geography theme of human-environment interaction.

- A inaccurate statement about the proximity of a geographic feature and a city
- B statement about a geographic characteristic of a country
- C correct, a statement that demonstrates human-environment interaction
- D statement about air transportation in a given country

- 10 6 – G2.2.2: Explain that communities are affected positively or negatively by changes in technology (e.g., Canada with regard to mining, forestry, hydroelectric power generation, agriculture, snowmobiles, cell phones, air travel).

Explain how technological advances have affected life in a particular region.

- A correct, identifies an effect of technology on the region
- B an opposite effect of technology on the region's environment
- C an incorrect effect of technology on the region's economy
- D an incorrect effect of technology on the region's wildlife

- 11 6 – G1.2.4: Use observations from air photos, photographs (print and CD), and films (VCR and DVD) as the basis for answering geographic questions about the human and physical characteristics of places and regions.

Given a photograph, identify the industry which is important to the area.

- A industry not indicated by the photograph
- B industry not indicated by the photograph
- C industry not indicated by the photograph
- D correct, the industry is indicated by the photograph

- 12 6 – G1.3.1: Use the fundamental themes of geography (location, place, human environment interaction, movement, region) to describe regions or places on earth.

Given a list of geographic features, identify the region described.

- A region does not border the body of water listed
- B correct, identifies the region described by the list
- C region is north of the one described by the list
- D region is west of the one described by the list

- 13 7 – W3.1.6: Use historic and modern maps to locate and describe trade networks among empires in the classical era.

Given a map of the Mediterranean region showing ancient Greek imports and exports, describe the trading system.

- A incorrect description of the exchange of goods as shown
- B correct, identifies the exchange of goods as shown
- C incorrect description of the exchange of goods as shown
- D incorrect description of the exchange of goods as shown

- 14 7 – G2.1.1: Describe the landform features and the climate of the region (within the Western or Eastern Hemispheres) under study.

Identify the correct physical description of a continent.

- A incorrectly describes this continent's size
- B correct, describes elements of this continent's landform
- C incorrectly describes this continent's mountain ranges
- D incorrectly describes the geographical forces that created this continent

- 15 6 – G3.2.2: Identify ecosystems and explain why some are more attractive for humans to use than are others (e.g., mid-latitude forest in North America, high latitude of Peru, tropical forests in Honduras, fish or marine vegetation in coastal zones).

Given a table including the climate and vegetation for four numbered regions, identify which region had the most human settlement.

- A this region has annual precipitation levels and vegetation that did not attract the most settlement
- B this region has annual precipitation levels and vegetation that did not attract the most settlement
- C correct, this region has annual precipitation levels, temperature ranges, and vegetation that attracted the most settlement
- D this region has similar vegetation as the correct region, but its annual rainfall and average temperatures did not attract the most settlement

- 16 7 – W2.1.4: Define the concept of cultural diffusion and how it resulted in the spread of ideas and technology from one region to another (e.g., plants, crops, plow, wheel, bronze metallurgy).

Given a timeline of the developments in the ancient world, identify which geographic concept is indicated.

- A correct, identifies the concept of cultural diffusion
- B unrelated geographic concept involving movement
- C unrelated geographic concept involving behavior
- D unrelated geographic concept involving population

- 17 7 – W1.2.1: Explain the importance of the natural environment in the development of agricultural settlements in different locations (e.g., available water for irrigation, adequate precipitation, suitable growth season).

Explain what major river systems provided for early civilizations.

- A a benefit of some rivers, but not utilized by early civilizations
- B a benefit of some rivers, but very localized with little impact on early civilizations
- C a benefit of some rivers, but not the river systems associated with early civilizations
- D correct, identifies what major river systems provided for early civilizations

- 18 7 – W3.2.3: Identify and describe the ways that religions unified people's perceptions of the world and contributed to cultural integration of large regions of Afro-Eurasia. (National Geography Standard 6, p. 73)

Identify which event explains why two countries on different continents share a common cultural trait.

- A correct, identifies the spread of a religion that influenced the shared cultural trait
- B incorrect religious connection
- C unrelated system of trade
- D unrelated military explanation

- 19 6 – G4.2.1: List and describe the advantages and disadvantages of different technologies used to move people, products, and ideas throughout the world (e.g., call centers in the Eastern Hemisphere that service the Western Hemisphere; the United States and Canada as hubs for the Internet; transport of people and perishable products; and the spread of individuals' ideas as voice and image messages on electronic networks such as the Internet).

Identify the most important factor influencing a particular wave of migration in the United States.

- A the growth of an unrelated industry
- B correct, identifies the technology that was the most important factor
- C an economic development that had limited influence on migration
- D an invention that influenced migration, but not the most important factor

- 20 7 – G4.4.1: Identify and explain factors that contribute to conflict and cooperation between and among cultural groups (e.g., natural resources, power, culture, wealth).

Identify the primary cause of conflict between two neighboring countries in South Asia.

- A incorrect economic cause
- B incorrect communication cause
- C incorrect resource cause
- D correct, identifies the primary cultural cause

- 21 7 – G4.3.2: Describe patterns of settlement by using historical and modern maps (e.g., the location of the world's mega cities, other cities located near coasts and navigable rivers, regions under environmental stress such as the Sahel).

Given a map of a country showing population density, identify which feature affects the population pattern shown.

- A political feature
- B correct, identifies the physical environment
- C cultural feature
- D land area feature

- 22 6 – G5.2.1: Describe the effects that a change in the physical environment could have on human activities and the choices people would have to make in adjusting to the change (e.g., drought in northern Mexico, disappearance of forest vegetation in the Amazon, natural hazards and disasters from volcanic eruptions in Central America and the Caribbean, and earthquakes in Mexico City and Colombia).

Identify which decision the people of a Gulf Coast state faced following a natural disaster.

- A a decision to relocate closer to harm's way
- B correct, identifies a decision to relocate farther from harm's way
- C a decision to refuse to pay certain taxes
- D a decision to refuse government intervention

- 23 7 – G5.1.3: Identify the ways in which human-induced changes in the physical environment in one place can cause changes in other places (e.g., cutting forests in one region may result in river basin flooding elsewhere as has happened historically in China; building dams floods land upstream and permits irrigation downstream as in Southern Africa, the Aswan Dam flooded the upper Nile Valley and permitted irrigation downstream).

Given an example of human changes to the physical environment, identify how these changes have affected surrounding regions.

- A correct, identifies an increase in an economic activity
- B unrelated effect on political relations among regions
- C unrelated physical effect on surrounding regions
- D unrelated effect on populations

- 24 7 – G5.1.1: Describe the environmental effects of human action on the atmosphere (air), biosphere (people, animals, and plants), lithosphere (soil), and hydrosphere (water) (e.g., desertification in the Sahel Region of North Africa, deforestation in the Congo Basin, air pollution in urban centers, and chemical spills in European rivers).

Given a photograph of an agricultural practice, identify how the environment benefits from this practice.

- A correct, identifies an environmental benefit
- B unrelated benefit to water quality
- C unrelated benefit to wildlife
- D unrelated benefit to native vegetation

- 25 6 – C1.1.1: Analyze competing ideas about the purposes government should serve in a democracy and in a dictatorship (e.g., protecting individual rights, promoting the common good, providing economic security, molding the character of citizens, or promoting a particular religion).

Identify a difference between a democracy and a dictatorship.

- A correct, identifies a fundamental characteristic of a democracy
- B a characteristic of some, but not all dictatorships
- C a characteristic of some, but not all dictatorships
- D an incorrect characteristic of a democracy

- 26 6 – C4.3.3: Give examples of how countries work together for mutual benefits through international organizations (e.g., North American Free Trade Agreement [NAFTA], Organization of American States [OAS], United Nations [UN]).

Identify a likely outcome of a particular group of countries joining a free trade organization.

- A unlikely economic outcome for member countries
- B correct, identifies a likely outcome related to trade among member countries
- C unlikely outcome related to trading with non-member countries
- D unlikely outcome related to imports from non-member countries

- 27 7 – C4.3.3: Explain why governments belong to different types of international and regional organizations (e.g., United Nations [UN], North Atlantic Treaty Organization [NATO], Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries [OPEC], European Union [EU], African Union [AU], G-8 countries [leading economic/political]).

Identify a situation in which the United States would ask the United Nations for assistance.

- A correct, a situation related to the United Nation's mission of peace-keeping
- B a situation that would be the sole responsibility of the federal government
- C a situation that would be the sole responsibility of the United States Congress
- D a situation that is outside of the United Nation's mission

- 28 7 – E1.1.1: Explain the role of incentives in different economic systems (acquiring money, profit, goods, wanting to avoid loss, position in society, job placement).

Identify which incentive motivates entrepreneurs in a free market system.

- A personal incentive that is not related to a free market system
- B personal incentive that is not related to a free market system
- C personal incentive that is not related to a free market system
- D correct, identifies a fundamental incentive for entrepreneurs

- 29 7 – E1.1.2: Describe the circular flow model (that businesses get money from households in exchange for goods and services and return that money to households by paying for the factors of production that households have to sell) and apply it to a public service (e.g., education, health care, military protection).

Identify how certain local public services are funded in a market economy.

- A correct, identifies the role of local taxation in providing public services
- B non-local government payments to the private sector
- C source of funding and providers not related to local public services
- D source of funding and distribution not related to local public services

- 30 6 – E2.3.1: Describe the impact of governmental policy (sanctions, tariffs, treaties) on that country and on other countries that use its resources.

Identify the most likely influence of a boycott on another country.

- A correct, identifies the most likely economic impact on the other country
- B an unlikely military outcome
- C an inaccurate description of the usual effect of a boycott
- D an inaccurate description of what prompts a boycott

- 31 6 – E3.3.1: Explain and compare how economic systems (traditional, command, and market) answer four basic questions: What should be produced? How will it be produced? How will it be distributed? Who will receive the benefits of production? (e.g., compare United States and Cuba, or Venezuela and Jamaica.)

Given a description of production and distribution within a type of economic system, identify that economic system.

- A an economic system that does not match the description
- B an economic system that does not match the description
- C an economic system that only partially matches the description
- D correct, identifies the type of economic system given in the description

- 32 7 – E3.1.4: Explain how communications innovations have affected economic interactions and where and how people work (e.g., Internet home offices, international work teams, international companies).

Identify a way communication advances have changed markets.

- A incorrect statement about trade
- B incorrect statement about price increases
- C correct, identifies a way communication advances have increased customer bases
- D incorrect statement about demand for domestic goods

- 33 8 – U3.3.4: Explain how the new Constitution resolved (or compromised) the major issues including sharing, separating, and checking of power among federal government institutions; dual sovereignty (state-federal power); rights of individuals; the Electoral College; the Three-Fifths Compromise; and the Great Compromise.

Identify the issues addressed by the Three-Fifths Compromise.

- A judicial and voting issues
- B statehood and land claim issues
- C individual rights and the legislature
- D correct, identifies two issues addressed by the Three-Fifths Compromise

- 34 8 – U3.3.6: Explain how the Bill of Rights reflected the concept of limited government, protections of basic freedoms, and the fear of many Americans of a strong central government. (C3)

Identify the purpose of the Bill of Rights.

- A correct, identifies the protection of personal liberties
- B purpose related to judicial powers
- C purpose related to protesting government
